

Home made bumper Guide Lines:

If you make a Home-made bumper, it must be with-in the following guide lines!
Home made Flat bumpers can only be a max of 9 inches tall and not less than 6 inches tall.
Flat bumper can only be No bigger than 7 inches from back to front of bumper.

Home-made Pointy Mopar bumper has to be made by the following rules.

Bumper must measure from top to bottom: No less then 6 inches and No bigger then 9 inches.
This includes the chrome outside skin welded on as well.

Bumper main outside the frame rails can't be bigger than 7 inches. This is measured from the back of the bumper to the front of the bumper.

Bumper center point must be 34 inches across the back base of point and point can't stick out more the 11 inches from the most back part of bumper!

Bumper must have chrome skin welded on front of bumper with NO sharp edges or points. Flat surface on bumper all sides!

End view of bumper

